Curated Nails

EXHIBITIONIST

INTRODUCTION

Nail decorating first appeared in religious ritual, people depicted the totem they worshiped on nails as a way of blessing. Nails are an important part of our body, and the parts of the human body that are in most contact with the outside world. They are also an essential feature of appearance, manner and trend. In daily life, nails have become a unique exhibition space of personality. Traditionally, girls tend to use their nails as another way of showing off their beauty. However, regardless of race, gender, age and profession, everyone has their own taste, preference, and things they like, and nails offer a great space to show. We invite you to submit your proposals to the "Curated Nails" project.

'Curated Nails' is a project for curatorial experimentation on nails and its surrounding area. Artist Ye Funa, founder of 'Curated Nails', invite curators to manifest exhibition themes and concepts on the tiny space of nails, breaking the barriers of "daily display" and "art exhibition". The proposals should challenge conventional ideas on "nail art" and to explore the potentials of nails as exhibition spaces. You don't have to be a professional curator or exhibition-maker to submit, all welcome!

WINNERS RECEIVE

The successful applicants will work with Ye Funa on exhibitions and related events. All exhibitions will be promoted on media and published in "Curated Nails" catalogue. We would like to offer participants an Exhibitionist Nail Polish coupon for their participation.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

1. An exhibition proposal that outlines both the background and plan for the exhibition with images.
2. Budget.
3. Curator's CV.
